

DERRICK

SEASON 2  AUTOPORTRAITS 2023

W Derrick is the work of London-based menswear designer Luke Derrick. Originally hailing from Oxford, he graduated from central saint martins MA in 2021. Having trained at the at some of menswear's most famed institutions: the likes of Brioni, Alexander McQueen, Danhill, Rapha, and Savile Row. Now from his studio in East London, Derrick constructs wardrobes that experiment with ideas of lazy elegance, and reluctant machismo.

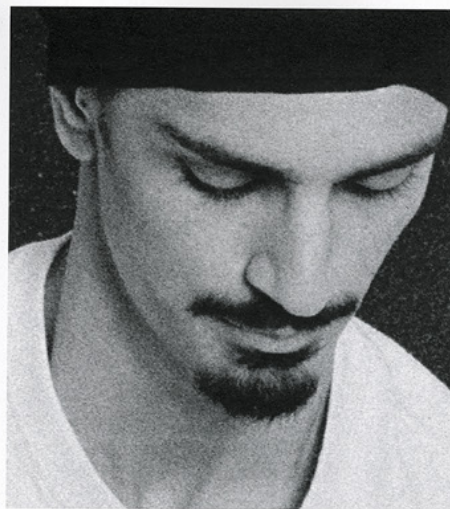

This label rigorously works to find new functionality in the elegant, and a new elegance in the casual. A new perspective on British design.

Iconic English textile mills such as Hainsworth of Yorkshire, Adamley of Macclesfield, and Pongees Silk, are individually sought out and formally collaborated with to re-write the classical narrative of British menswear.

Thank you for your time in viewing this body of work.

To just about getting there on time, to definitely not getting there on time, to rigorous self critique, to doing it all again tomorrow, to screenshots, to paraphrases, to press releases, to getting locked out, to walking at night, to the slash generation, to the night owls, to the aesthetic, to the grind, to the weekend, to big coats, to bigger ideas, to start-ups, to nightshifts, to hands in pockets, to the studio, to the lights off, to the restless, to the right angle, to the party that's happening after this one, to manifesting, to manifestoes, to routines, to the blur.

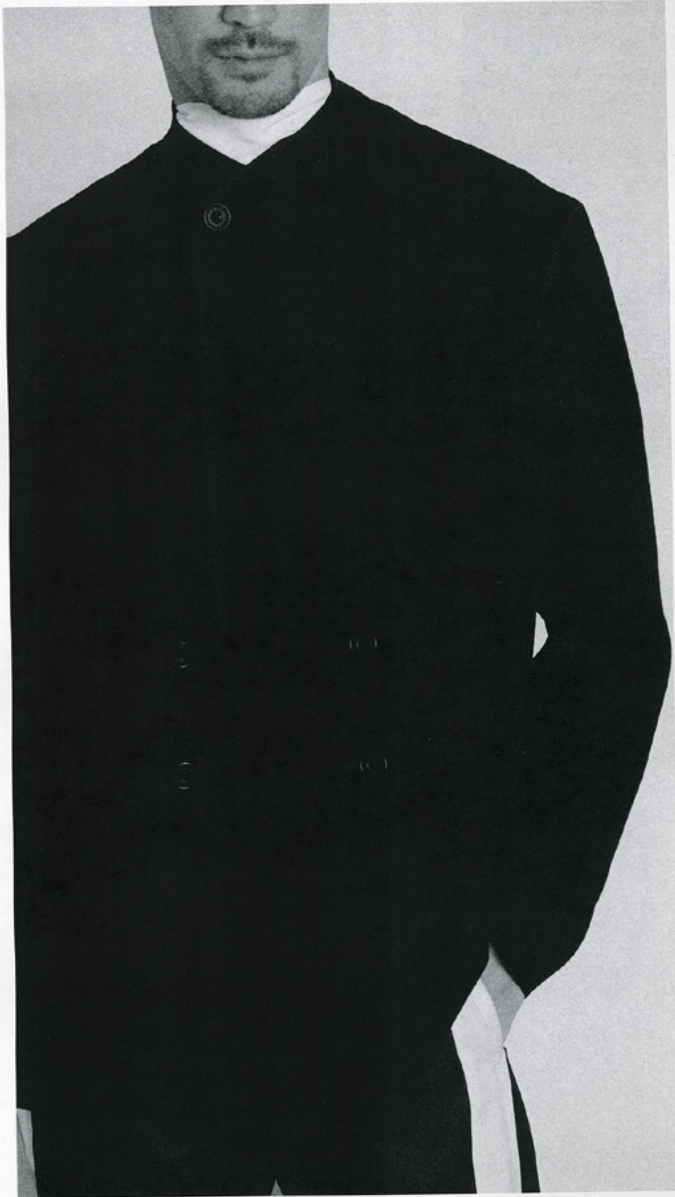

To the art getting away with it.

DERRICK

For those who go from the meeting, to the call, to the party, to the opening, to the night bus, to the bedroom, to East, to West, to yesterday's post, to tomorrow's ideals, to late nights, to the morning after, to the tube rush, to the tube delay, to the courier, to the taxi, to the five minute primer, to the moodboard, to the manuscript, to new chapters, to writer's block, to a negroni, to another one, to bleeding neon lights in the rain, to jackets under arms, to jackets on the floor, to leaving five minutes to get out the house, to throwing on the first thing you could find, to podcasts, to drinks with strangers, to stepping out into the wind, to actually waking up looking like this, to reading more books, to bad art, to good art, to reels of film, to Trisha's, to cigarettes, not e-cigarettes, to the doomscroll, to the magazine collection, to coffee on the way there, to leaving it until you come back, to being ahead of your time, to being behind schedule, to winning awards, to losing headphones.
