EX-A STUDIO - FUTURE RELICS A/W 2022

---

EX-A STUDIOS VIRTUAL TAKE ON JEWELLERY PRESENTATION ON LONDON FASHION WEEK

“Future Relics”, a 3D visual audio immersive jewellery presentation. Produced by and designed by Elliot Andre. He is a part of the new breed of jewellery designer who create unique futurist original jewellery. EX-A studio designs are achieved by using the latest design technology.

“Future Relics” 3D visual Presentation showcases Elliot Andre’s debut jewellery collection at LFW, which is visually dynamic and highly creative. The presentation was created, using 3D self-generated unique renders, fusing syncopated music produced by Osaka Artist - Limited Toss.

EX-A Studio’s latest A/W 2022 collection is an impactful gender-neutral Jewellery collection, communicating a digital dialogue in the way we now connect with the virtual world.

Elliot Andre mentioned.

“it’s important that we embrace the use of technology in every design aspect as it’s a great way to push creativity & communication between groups”

Future Relics can be watched via the London Fashion Week Website or on the EX-A Channel – (<https://bit.ly/3JkUC4v>)
